

Samantha Rokoszynski

Sammy is a patient with adenoid cystic carcinoma since March 2016. She has been an active member of SGC UK charity and has experience in representing the charity at national conferences.

Sammy is passionate about bringing patients, healthcare professionals and researchers together to work collaboratively in bringing about improvements to patient care and service delivery.

Sammy is a registered general nurse and has worked in the NHS for 25 years. She has held a variety of clinical and non-clinical roles and has a good insight into how the NHS is structured and functions. Within her current role as improvement and change management specialist, she provides project management support to a range of corporate projects.

Sammy attended the Swallows conference in 2024 as an ambassador for SGCUK and is also a patient member of the Mouth Foundation charity and the Essex Cancer research charity.
